Tolemeo

A DESIGN TALK WITH CARLA TOLOMEO

I have always thought that art should be something lived in the home and for the home, not just an object to hang on the wall and distant from everyday life.

And so I have come up with the idea of a chair which is the most humble, most used, most necessary object in a home, however, as a transformed chair.

And that is how my transformation from a painter to a sculpture maker having the chair as its object began.

In this long journey of mine I was lucky enough to meet Davide and Gianni Overi, who understood my idea, probably because furniture is as fundamental to them as it is to me. We start from two points of view that seem different, but they actually align. This exhibition demonstrates of how closely our team coincides.

Because they know how to build furniture, however, I can make it different, adding some design flair, creativity and uniqueness to it. And that's what made this collection, in my opinion, unique and unrepeatable. I was used to deal with the object from the start to the end. This time the object was handed to me by others. I had become the icing on the cake, however, let's say that this icing set a nice tone. I really think that these sofas, these armchairs, that this bed are unrepeatable. And that's just the beginning of a collaboration. I couldn't find better friends, and a more important sponsor than FORMITALIA and MIRABILI.
